

The Eritrean Festival Holland 2010

We are pleased to announce that the ninth annual Eritrean Festival Holland will take place on October 1st and 2nd of 2010, in the suburb of Rotterdam City. The exact place of the Eritrean annual pilgrimage will be at the wonderful and exciting place Villa de Heerlijkheid, which is located in the Hoogvliet in the suburb of Rotterdam city.

Experience the Eritrean rich culture through participation at the yearly Festival Holland of Eritreans and friends of Eritrea. The two day festival will have different activities that fulfill the interest and taste of all walks of life.

In the ninth annual Eritrean Festival Holland, there will be different programs, such as lectures, seminars, youth activities, children's programs, sports competition, cultural shows and other things.

This year's Festival is special as it will be held at a time when an illegal sanction is imposed against Eritreans and its people. This special occasion will remind all Eritrean nationals to redouble efforts towards building a prosperous and strong nation and also to enhance our determination to strength resolute rebuff against all acts of hostility
