Hailemelekot Demoz

April 4, 1942- March 29, 2014

Ato Hailemelekot was born on April 14, 1942 in Senafe, Eritrea to Hagush Sengal and Dejezmach Demoz Hagos.

At an early age Hailemelekot showed a tremendous interest in education. He attended 1st grade to 8th grade in Senafe. Then, he graduated from Haileselassie Secondary High School (current Red Sea) in Asmara. Afterwards, he worked as a Court Treasurer and later became a District Judge. Towards the end of his career in Eritrea, he was elected to be a Member of the Eritrean Parliament.

Ato Hailemelekot also played professional soccer with Team Embasoira, one of Eritrea's top national teams. On September 5, 1968 he married his sweetheart, Ethiopia Mebrahtu, in Asmara. He was blessed with three children and six grand children.

Due to the political crisis in Eritrea, he left his beloved country with his family and migrated through Sudan and Saudi Arabia and eventually made it to the United States in 1982 where he lived and raised his family in Denver, Colorado.

Our beloved brother Hailemelekot was a person that lived up to his responsibility in all aspects of life. He was considerate, loving and a caring person who loved his country and countrymen. Ato Hailemelekot was an active member of the Eritrean community in Denver and we are sure his passing has left a big void in Denver and beyond. One of his most joyous experiences was witnessing the independence of Eritrea. Ato Hailemelekot is survived by his beloved wife Ethiopia Mebrahtu, his daughter Tigisti, sons Alexander and Yonatan. His grandchildren are Joshua, Adonia, Kaleb, Haregu, Rahwa and Mewael. Ato Hailemelekot was a loving husband, father and a wonderful human being.

May God rest his soul and give strength to his family!
