

What a shame for the U.N.!

Neither Ban Ki Mun nor the U.N.S.C. did have the guts to call a spade - a spade!

Last week, the minority genocidal regime led by Meles Zenawi of Ethiopia, audaciously announced, that its forces had crossed 18 kilometers into sovereign Eritrean territory and attacked military posts. This was done with the blessing and financing of the U.S. The whole wide world heard the shameful news in awe; and news agencies like the BBC and Voice of America shamelessly and repeatedly broadcasted the news of aggression as if it was a blessing from God. It proved that they had planned the mission in consultation with Meles, and were eagerly awaiting its accomplishment.

What a shame for Ban Ki Mun and U.N.Security Council!
What a disgusting double standard policy of the U.S.!
What a disgrace for the international community!

*The only comment they all gave about the aggression was: "Both sides must show maximum restraint!" It can't be more shameful! How could a world body who is supposed to safeguard the sovereign rights of all nations give such a lousy comment warning the aggressor and the victim!

Shame on you!!

That's why the U.S. double standard policy is disgusting, and that's why the total lameness of the U.N. is alarming.

Let's frankly ask what they would have said and done, if it was Eritrea which had launched the attacks deep inside Ethiopian territory? It won't be difficult for any reasonable person to guess, because they have been very hasty to pass unjust and illegal sanctions against Eritrea based on false accusations although they lacked justification. The sources of all the false accusations were Meles and his masters.

Therefore the U.N. Security Council has miserably failed to fulfill its duties. It has proved it again now that it is simply a mere subservient of the U.S. State Department; and that it is under the direct control of the U.S. ambassador to the U.N. Suzan Rice who is a close friend of Meles, the Weyani leader in Ethiopia. Time will shortly prove, that Meles is the most notorious liar the world had ever seen.

How could a Superpower like the U.S.A. with all its intelligence be misled by such notorious liars?

Why couldn't the Secretary General of the U.N. and the members of the U.N. Security Council not have the guts to call a spade - a spade and be able to condemn the reckless aggression by Weyani?

The Weyani leaders in cooperation with Suzan Rice had several times accused Eritrea of acts of terrorism; but all their accusations were repeatedly proved to be utterly false.

The rule of law will prevail in the long run!

With truth on its side Eritrea will always prevail!
