

Selam Seb Dehai:

By now, it is expected that the candidacy of Saron Gebreselassie in the 2018 mayoral race in Toronto is known to most of those who follow local and Eritrean social media. This is just a reminder to Dehaiyers Toronto residents that the day to cast your vote is just around the corner, Monday Oct.22.

At her age, the quantum leap Saron made by putting her name in the mayoral candidates list, her passionate and bold comportment in the series of debates, has been an inspiration to our youth and pride to the Eritrean community and to the Black communities in general.

At this juncture, when the wind of positive change is blowing over the Horn region and our leaders setting the stage and calling once again for an active collaboration among our respective nations, locally when events like the mayoral contest occur, it gives us an opportunity to come together and support those among us like Saron to succeed in such a worthy causes that would eventually result in a positive feedback and growth of our respective communities. So it is incumbent upon Toronto residents from Somalia, Sudan, Ethiopia, Southern Sudan, Djibouti, Kenya, Uganda to give your vote to Saron Gebrelul.

Saron G/Luul is not only an ambitious young lawyer, but also a fighter for social justice. With one day left, please give her your vote and remind fellow Toronto residents to support her in her bold bid to represent us as the first Eritrean Canadian mayor of Toronto.

Wetru Awet n'Hafash!

Haileab Luul Tesfai.

Toronto.
